

ENGLISH INTENSIVE COURSE

- Monday – Thursday, 9:00am – 12:50pm (classes may be held at 12:30pm – 4:20pm depending on availability).
- Students can start on any Monday and must join for at least 1 week.
- Students must be at least 16 to join; exceptions may be made for 15 year old students pending a level check and assessment by a Hawaii Palms English School (HPES) teacher.
- Multi-skill general English course divided into 3 levels. Focus on communication (speaking and listening comprehension) supported by grammar (2 or 3 grammar points per unit), vocabulary, reading, and pronunciation.
- Intensive terms are 12 weeks long.
- We follow a textbook as our curriculum guide (Evolve with 12 units). We assign homework regularly and give quizzes every 2 units. There may be a mid-term halfway through the term and a final at the end of the term.
- At the end of each term, the school will determine if students will go up to the next level or go back to the start of their current level.
- Except for unusual circumstances, students have the same teacher for the duration of the term. Teachers may change at the start of every term.
- Classes are held in a classroom, but we may take students out on outings to communicate with students from other classes, expand our lessons outside the classroom, and communicate with native speakers in the real world.
- There are bi-weekly presentations and mix-ups as part of the course.
- Students receive a written Student Evaluation every 4 weeks.

TOEIC COURSE

- Monday – Friday 1:30pm – 3:30pm.
- Students can start on any Monday and must join for at least 1 week.
- Students must be at least 16 to join.
- Students' English level must be Intermediate or above.
- A level check must be conducted before registration.
- On Mondays and Tuesdays, the course introduces vocabulary and grammar relating to the TOEIC Listening and Reading Test. On Wednesdays, students take a practice Listening and Reading Test. On Thursdays, students go over their practice test and receive feedback from their teacher. On Fridays, the course introduces language and techniques used in the TOEIC Speaking Test.
- The course is ideal for students who want to improve their TOEIC scores, but even those not interested in taking the test can benefit as we learn English through TOEIC.
- Students receive photocopies of the materials we cover. We select material from Barron's TOEIC books.
- Except for unusual circumstances, students have the same teacher for the duration of their course.

ELECTIVE CLASSES

- Monday – Friday starting at 1:30pm.
- Students can start on any day and at any scheduled class time.
- Students must be at least 16 to join; exceptions may be made for 15 year old students pending a level check and assessment by a Palms teacher.
- No minimum classes required; students can take as many or as few lessons as they want.
- Two levels: Level 1 (pre-intermediate and intermediate) and Level 2 (upper-intermediate and advanced). Some electives are mixed-level classes.
- Classes are individual modules that focus on 1 language skill. However, classes are driven by a communicative approach so students can practice and use the target language.
- No textbook required. Teachers provide photocopied material as needed.
- There is no homework assigned or quizzes given.
- Teachers rotate classes.
- Students can book classes online, by calling the school, or in person. Once booked students may reschedule their classes 3 business days in advance by emailing, calling, or visiting the school (elective classes may not be rescheduled online).
- Students can book any level-appropriate class up to 2 business days (by 5:00pm) prior to their desired class. Students may still register for a class after the cut-off time, provided another student has already scheduled the same class.
- Electives are offered online as a mixed-level Conversation Club. In-person Conversation Club is also offered throughout the week.
- Ideal for students who want flexibility.
- Students have the option of paying as registered students or as nonregistered students.
- Students get 1 free ticket for every 10 tickets purchased.
- Students get 5 free ticket for every 20 tickets purchased.

PRIVATE AND SEMI-PRIVATE LESSONS

- Students can request the dates, times, teacher, and content of their lessons.
- No guarantee that we can meet the requested times and dates.
- Private lessons are 1 on 1. Semi-private lessons can have between 2 and 4 students.
- Students get 1 free hour for every 10 hours purchased.
- Classes may be held at school or at an agreed upon outdoor location.
- Students have the option of paying as registered students or as nonregistered students.

ONLINE WRITING COURSE

- Students work through a series of writing assignments at their own pace, with a limit of 2 assignments per week.
- Students must complete all assignments within 1 year of registration.
- The course is designed for students who are pre-intermediate level or above.
- Online Writing Course is made up of 4, 8, or 12 writing assignments. Students decide the number of assignments they wish to complete when they enroll.
- Students are assigned a teacher who will oversee their writing work throughout the duration of their course.
- After each assignment is submitted, the teacher e-mails back the student with any necessary corrections and schedules a 30-minute online lesson.
- Online lessons serve as a way to reinforce some of the corrections given and for the student to receive general feedback on their writing.
